

Numbers game

The athletic year in review

Another athletic year is quickly coming to a close. Some teams fare better than others in any given season, but a number of Grove City athletes always seem to step up and post some notable numbers. As The Collegian takes a look at some of the most interesting numbers from this athletic year, here's to the statistician in you.

Men's club lacrosse defeated then-No. 1 St. John's a month ago and has not dropped out of the top 10 in the polls all year. After defeating No. 10 ranked Indiana Tech last Saturday, Grove City faced No. 1 Dayton in the conference semifinal yesterday morning.

Men's club volleyball entered nationals ranked 14th before being knocked out by eventual winner Messiah College in the first round of the championship bracket.

Sophomore Megan Bilko has achieved five All-American awards, including last year's 800 free relay. She also set four individual school records this year in the 500 free, 1000 free, 1650 free and 400 IM.

Men's soccer played 11 overtime games this year. With that total, the team set a D-III record and tied the NCAA All-Division record. That's a lot of free soccer.

The women had the largest margin of victory at women's track & field championships since 2005, which was the last time Grove City won, by a total of 61 points.
